

The NAB would not have to worry about listners like myself leaving there audience if there product was worth listining to. I have demonstrated for the past two years that quality programing is worth the subscription price when it delivers a product that I chose to listen to. And what are they bitching about? They brodcast on the public airways that are owned by the people of the United States, and the product they foist upon the public is a insult.

Randall Dickey